Mission Statement

Calvert Hall College, a Lasallian Catholic college preparatory school, prepares a diverse community of young men to achieve their full potential utilizing their unique talents. Through excellent academic and extracurricular programs led by innovative and dedicated educators, our students become confident men with the ethical foundation for service, independent thinking, and responsible leadership. Inspired by the faith and zeal of St. John Baptist de LaSalle, our students develop a respect for others as part of an inclusive, lifelong Calvert Hall brotherhood as Men of Intellect, Men of Faith, and Men of Integrity.

Overview

Calvert Hall College High School, located in Baltimore, MD, is the oldest De La Salle Christian Brothers school in the country. With a commitment to educate the whole person, Calvert Hall has provided a Catholic, college preparatory education along with robust athletics and arts programs to its students for over 175 years. Presently, Calvert Hall enrolls 1,230 young men, and the school is dedicated to creating an inclusive community where the students develop into Men of Intellect, Men of Faith, and Men of Integrity.

The School operates in the President/Principal model, and now President Brother John Kane, FSC, seeks to find a dynamic, visionary and mission-driven academic leader as its next Principal. The Principal is responsible for supervising the overall student experience and in inspiring the dedicated faculty and staff to embrace innovative practices of teaching and learning.

The Hall enrolls students from more than 128 different zip codes. As a result, the school provides a deep sense of inclusivity and belonging that instills a sense of brotherhood for life. The next Principal will inherit a strong and joyful community of students, faculty, parents, and alumni. Brother John is hoping to find a Principal who has a team-focused approach to leadership and who has a proven track record as an innovative academic leader.

Opportunities and Challenges

Calvert Hall is an amazing school that provides opportunities for academic, athletic, arts and leadership development for its students. The President is hopeful that the next Principal will be able to focus on the following opportunities:

- Providing professional development opportunities for all faculty and staff;
- Continuing to inspire teaching and learning excellence with an innovative and creative academic environment;
- Focusing on strategies that will create a renewed sense of commitment to lifelong learning;
- Ensuring excellence in academic, arts, athletics, and extracurricular programs;
- Working in partnership with the President, providing strong internal and external communications regarding the value of a Calvert Hall education.

Qualifications and Personal Attributes

The next Principal is expected to fully embrace the Lasallian mission of the school and to serve as mission-driven servant leader. Specific qualities and characteristics that are important for the next Principal to possess include:

- A collaborative, inspiring and experienced academic and instructional educator who has an established history of building community and inspiring excellence;
- A Catholic leader who is devoted to Calvert Hall's Lasallian mission;
- A passionate and compassionate leader who embraces inclusivity and diversity;
- A motivational lifelong learner who believes in the importance of educating the whole student;
- A dedicated and experienced leader who is approachable and possesses the ability to build community and establish connections with students, families, and alumni;
- A Principal who possesses exceptional communication skills;
- A relational, joyful, and visible leader who is driven to seek ways to support faculty and staff programs.
