

Middle School Director
Francis Parker School of Louisville – Louisville, KY
July 2024

Middle School Director Position

Francis Parker School of Louisville seeks a dynamic Middle School Director to begin in July 2024. Francis Parker School is a Preschool - 12th grade, coed, secular, Progressive, Independent School in Louisville, Kentucky, with about 460 students and a commitment to equity and justice. Our two campuses, located about 30 minutes apart, are uniquely suited for the students they serve: the 64-acre, rural Goshen Campus, with an open classroom environment, serves students ages two through 8th grade. The urban Downtown Campus in the heart of Louisville serves 9th - 12th graders. The Middle School Director will be a member of the Leadership Team reporting to the Head of School. The Middle School Director will serve as the leader of and advocate for the Middle School, oversee student progress and life in the Middle School, act as the primary contact and partner to parents, and work with the Associate Head for Teaching and Learning to supervise the Middle School faculty. Candidates for this position will have a master's degree, 10+ years of experience in education, and at least two years of experience in an administrative/instructional leadership position. Experience with and a passion for Progressive education, as is a dedication to cultural competence, is essential.
