Founded upon a deep appreciation for childhood, and an abiding belief in the necessity and power of parent/teacher partnership, The Langley School offers an exceptional community and an individually attuned academic program, proving both to be mutually reinforcing and equally essential.

The Langley School is located on a beautiful 9.2-acre campus in McLean, Virginia and currently enrolls approximately 480 co-ed students in grades PK-8. Langley's unique educational model helps students develop vital skills such as critical thinking, analytical reasoning, communication, collaboration, and creativity. The school's inquiry-based curriculum reflects the nuances of Langley's Arc of Development and teaches them complex ways to process, understand, and evaluate information. At Langley, teachers know that children's social and emotional acuity is critical to their academic success, and both are intentionally nurtured in equal measure.
