

Marin Waldorf School serving toddlers through eighth grade in beautiful San Rafael California, seeks a new School Director to begin in the summer of 2026. The School Director is equivalent to a Head of School, reporting to the Board of Trustees, and working collaboratively with all elements of the school.

In addition to experience and comfort with progressive education, the Director needs to be able to provide leadership in non-academic areas such as enrollment growth, budgets and finance, fundraising, and being a compelling and articulate external face of the school - a skilled administrator of systems, processes, and people

Prior experience with Waldorf education is desirable, but not required as long as a candidate is eager to learn all they can about Waldorf pedagogy and its underlying philosophies and values of child development,

A full Position Description is under development and should be available by mid-February.

In the meantime, please send preliminary expressions of interest to Skip Kotkins:
